Sustainable Agriculture & Nutrition Education

Brian McGinness: Land Grant Director
Robert Fox: Agroecology Technician
Mara Yborra: Nutrition Educator
Alice Wadsworth: Admin. Assistant
College Student Demographic

- Fall 2017 Student Enrollment: 618 Students
  - Bachelor: 69
  - Associate/ Certificate: 549
- Average age of students: 27
- Female: 66%  Male: 34%
- Native American: 92%  Non-Native: 8%
- 48 Different Native American Tribal Nations made up the student body
Leadership Begins Here

Apply NOW
Native American Tuition Waiver
Fall 2017
DEADLINE TO APPLY
June 29, 2017
http://uttc.edu/apply/waiver

Also offered: Spring & Summer 2018
Does not cover books, housing, meals or fees
Housing

- Family Housing
- Solo Dorms
- Men Dorms
- Apartment Complex
- Co-ed Dorms
Student Life

• Student Services
  • Tutoring
  • Counseling
  • Disability
  • Chemical Health
  • Student Health
  • Psychological
  • Domestic Violence

• Assistance for Students with Children
  • Child care  ages 0-5
  • FACE (Family and Child Education) Program
  • Elementary School
  • Food Pantry
“Working for Land Grant just makes you want to be a healthier person” – Leona Morsette, Northern Cheyenne TOTAL HEALTH TUESDAYS!
#HealthyCampus

Location - Cafeteria

Every Tuesday the cafeteria features healthy meals utilizing local products and organic produce from the UTTC gardens.

Come Support your Healthy Campus!

For more information please contact Misty Ybarra at mybarra@uttc.edu or call 701-221-1433.
Thank You!